ADAM READ

An actor, performance artist, choreographer born in Australia, collaborated with various theatres around the world. He co-created Cirque du Soleil from Montreal, Derevo Theatre from St. Petersburg, Grotest Maru from Berlin, Barefoot Company from Netherlands and Vienna Marakesh from Tel Aviv, among others. He is now collaborating with Grotest Maru in Berlin, he is also creating his solo work as the actor and the performance artist in many different parts of the world. He is inspired by the move of Del arte comedy, the Japanese bhuto dance and the Russian clowning about.

The workshops run by him include the intensive training of experiencing their body, the space awarenesses and forms. The workshop aims at communicating at different levels and freeing the body in various forms of communication and expression. The workshops make a reference to the micro and macro prospect, in which inner world of the form and its outside character interpenetrate. In them one can see the image full of the vitality and power, which in combination with passion and the brutal beauty, enraptures every spectator and participant.
